

Start in this mode can be inside or outside of the course, potential first crossing of a base from inside the course to outside is not indicated by beep